

Community of Change Residential – Milton Keynes 17th & 18th April 2018

WHAT IS WORKING WELL THAT WE CAN SHARE:

Volunteering at Little Owls Children's Centre & at Christ the Saver primary School – Partners graduate, Georgina Ralphs

Speaking up for myself, going on courses, being a self-advocate, my gardening, family support – Partners graduate, Sam Willacy

Having independent visitor, coming from Hartlepool to Preston – David, Hartlepool Young Person

SPACE PRESTON – it's a sensory centre for young people with additional needs – David, Hartlepool Young Person

College is going well for me – Hannah, Hartlepool Young Person

Set up my social enterprise, PA's support & new home – Partners graduate, William Case

College is going well for me in East Durham – Lydia, Hartlepool Young Person

My college is Catcote Academy sixth form – Nacita, Hartlepool Young Person

Independent Travel Training – Liverpool City Council

Quality Assurance of specialist educational provider – Suffolk County council, Chris Jacobs

Co-production and partnership, working with mainstream schools – Suffolk County Council

Family champion model – Liz Keig – Essex Parent Carer Forum

Word of mouth passing information – Rita, parent Brent Council

Joint training parent – professionals – Telford & Wrekin Council

Positive & constructive relationship between Parent Carer forum and children services – Maria – Liverpool City Council.

Effective Co-production with PCF on family centred approaches – Carol Thomas – Kirklees Council

Lots of positive & involved parents & young People – Cambridgeshire County Council

Personal education Budgets & personal packages – Lisa Abel – City of York Council

Children in Care Council, being given an opportunity to take part in acting workshops to increase confidence and develop their skills – Kim Hartlepool, Hartlepool Young Person

Children in Care Council, training to become ambassadors to represent young people and ensure they are more representative of other young people in care – Kim Hartlepool, Hartlepool Young Person

We can make change happen – Chloe – Hartlepool, Hartlepool Young Person

When young people and families are involved it works well

Gaining Feedback – Jagdeep Sandhu Bradford Council

Young commissioners deciding on how to present an “easy read” Document – Hazel Yabsley, Hertfordshire County Council

Erwash “Vanguard” have brought in Helen Sanderson Services – ABCD- Partners graduate, Sandi Beers

People with lived experience supporting other to develop & keep going, circles of support – include – ME – Solutions – Essex

Person centred approaches, work with SENCO's & Graduated approach training – Carol Thomas, Kirklees Council

Major Dasy Op – beginning to use planning together to find out what people want to do during day, evenings & weekends using person centred practice – Partners Graduate, Wendy Burt- Essex

Beginning to have planning live sessions with young people, families & other important people in their lives – Partners graduate, Wendy Burt – Essex

Document for mainstream school specifying expected provision that should be available for children / young people in school – Noelani Hall, Newcastle City Council

Housing options advice post – Cambridgeshire County Council

Young person with Autism fully involved in the governance of a programme I am involved with – Kevin Williams, In Control Trustee

Moving on from 6th form to college – I wanted to go to college and moved on even when school did not agree – travel training completed to college, Hartlepool Young Person

Very important people listening to me for what I have to say. – Jake, Hartlepool Young Person

Positive Behaviour Support Team – Cambridgeshire County Council

Dedicated local offer. Support to have capacity to engage with C/YP & P/C to develop LO & provide empowering IAS – Bradford City Council

Use of our Local Offer – up 214% last year and a further 141% so far this year – Ella Ritchie, LB of Hackney

Beginning to get there on transitioning Care – Cambridgeshire County Council

Personal Budgets – Karina Bainbridge, Middlesbrough Council

Personalised Budgets – S/care reorganisation to a SEND 0-25 service – Anita Hewson, Cambridgeshire County Council

Co-production, as a commissioner all my work includes local parents, sharing plans, reviews etc. SEND / Aiming high governance includes parents in all working groups, BUT need better inclusion of children & young people – Sam Wells, Telford & Wrekin Council

Co-production with parent / carers, supported employment, sub region working, implementing 0 – 25 service, new children's resource centre – run sit on Surgeries – Jo Baty, LB of Hammersmith & Fulham

Relationships with other stakeholders, good quality EHCP's, co-production meeting, parent information sessions for children transferring to secondary education – Joena Stanley, LB of Redbridge

“Return to Middlesbrough” project- supporting LAC to return home / to Middlesbrough – Sam Malone, Middlesbrough Council

Vibrant Parent Forum – Richard Holland, In Control

I'm helping to develop Community Circles, I'm working on Asset Based Approaches & Designing a development network for Commissioners – Martin Routledge, In Control

Development of a new strategy through co production involving C/YP, Carers, multi – sector agencies & based on robust analysis

Transforming how our children are being supported – Marcella Cooper, Barking & Dagenham

I'm doing 4+1 sessions to help people work out how to solve problems / improve – Martin Routledge, In Control

Early stages of a project to develop guidance for school & practitioners which outlines how they can access & support for pupils with SEND attending mainstream schools & develop inclusion. Angela Quane, Liverpool City Council

Pilots of personal budgets in Italy (Milan) – Francesca PHD researcher

Person Centred approach, relationships with school & colleges. Bespoke packages for YP – When things are not working – Mandeep Viridi, LB of Redbridge

Developing local provision – ASD Complex Needs, Developing Supported internship programmes, working in partnership with local collage. Mandeep Viridi, LB of Redbridge

Lots of Direct payments – Cambridgeshire County Council

Improving quality of SEN info passed to colleges to improve transition – Sarah Grant, Kirklees Council

Working in residential housing with young people, get the chance to work with local authorities to improve the lives of the young people. Helping to link our young people to reconnect with the local and home area. Helping to make a difference to their lives- Leigh Keeble, Preston / Blackpool

Operational teams working with commissioner – Management group – Telford & Wrekin Council

SEND teams that value our knowledge & experience – Helena Marks-Dwyer, LB of Hackney

Good relationship between IAS & SEND departments – Helena Marks-Dwyer, LB of Hackney

SENDIASS have- good working partnerships with SEND Services and others, Strong network. Services ensure families are aware of SENDIASS – City of York Council

Keeping ETHOS of Newcastle Children Alive, when only 2 schools are community schools- strong relationships & professional challenge. Karl Harms, Newcastle City Council

From position of working in silos – lots of joint working now in process / planned eg. Joint social care / CAMHS meetings, joint social care / SENDI day planned. Co-production still in early stages but on agenda. – Julie Hatton, Walsall Council

Integrated 0 – 25 SEND, Social work Team in Progress – Solihull MBC

Self-referral for short breaks from Local Offer – City of York Council

Cotmanhay Peoples Centre has a very creative & open Manager – doing Fab community work – Partners graduate, Sandi Beers

Erewash CVS is doing brilliant work within the community for the community – Partners graduate, Sandi Beers

Volunteering isn't "Second Best" ... its part of a journey, creates connections, makes friendships, grows skills, and finds local solutions to Local issues. Partners graduate, Lisa Watchorn

Southend Education

Increased numbers of Education Health & Care plans issued on time. Transferred over 99% of statements to plans by 31st March 2018. – Janet Lucitt-canavan RBKC

Revised SEN Banding descriptors / scheme – Essex / Southend Council

Personal outcome Evaluation Tools – In Control

Partner in Policymaking courses / Programmes – in Control

Autism Support centres attached to mainstream schools – Essex / Southend Council

Grasping the SEND Nettle, motivating the team, Ambitious Documents – Brin Martin, Southend Council

People with lived experience supporting through circles of support & good person centred practice development of robust workable support plans – include ME solutions. – Essex

Now have parent / carer independent Rep on EHC/ complex Need (JC) panel, SEN panel and about to start on short breaks panel. Betsy Clark, Wandsworth Parent Forum